

Air Quality and Acid Rain Activity Guide Answer Sheet
Environmental Science Camp

The piece of chalk placed in the cup containing white vinegar dissolved much quicker than the piece of chalk placed in the cup containing water. The chalk contains calcium carbonate. Acids like vinegar react with and dissolve materials like chalk containing calcium carbonate. This activity models the destructive effects of acid rain on materials that contain calcium carbonate.