The KU Natural History Museum is open Tuesday-Saturday, 9am-5pm and Sunday, 12pm-4pm. The museum is free, but donations are always appreciated and help to support the museum. Follow us on social media for the latest updates on our events and programs.

WELCOME!

Collections Up Close At The Union: Honey Bees!

Nov. 9, KU Union, 4th Floor, 11:30am-1:00pm

Stop by the KU Natural History Museum's table at the KU Union (4th floor) to explore a variety of honey bee specimens from the KU Natural History Museum collections with entomologist Jennifer Thomas! Explore the world of honey bees, see special specimens from our world-renowned collection, and learn why natural history collections are essential.

KU Common Book Lecture: Dr. Robin Wall Kimmerer

Nov. 10, 7:30pm, online

Register: experience.ku.edu/common-book-events

Join this talk with Dr. Robin Wall Kimmerer, author of Braiding Sweetgrass: Indigenous Wisdom, Scientific Knowledge, and the Teachings of Plants, followed by a Q&A. Learn more at experience.ku.edu/common-book.

KU Common Book Reflection Stations

Through December at the KU Natural History Museum

Museum visitors are invited to visit new reflection stations throughout the museum. These stations feature passages from this year’s KU Common Book, Braiding Sweetgrass, by Robin Wall Kimmerer, paired with chosen museum exhibits. You’re invited to reflect on these as individuals and as members of the KU and Lawrence community.

KU Common Book Student Conversation: Dr. Robin Wall Kimmerer

Nov. 11, 11am, online

Register: experience.ku.edu/common-book-events

Dr. Kimmerer will hold a small event exclusively for KU and Haskell students. This informal conversation will take place via Zoom, and is hosted by The Commons and the KU Natural History Museum. To register to attend this Zoom session, please visit thecommons.ku.edu/event/1030
