

Hint: Despite its name, this omnivore's fur can be many different colors.

Hint: Found in the rainforest, this mammal is a member of the anteater family.

Hint: The largest and heaviest living member of the deer family.

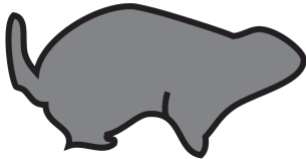

Hint: This carnivore has reddish fur, bushy tail with a white tip and black legs and ear tips.

Hint: Also known as a mountain lion or puma.

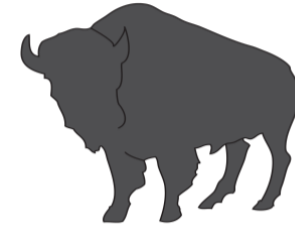

Hint: A desert bird known for running fast.

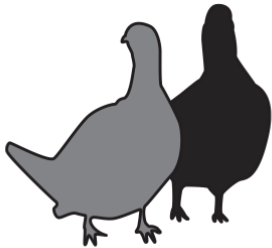

Hint: This burrowing rodent can be seen popping up in the Panorama exhibit.

Hint: This rainforest bird has a large colorful beak, and is the national bird of Belize.

Hint: National mammal of the USA.

Hint: Found in native tall-grass prairie, this bird is known for its loud 'booming' calls.

Hint: Also known as red lynx, this cat is known for its short tail.

Hint: Found in the Arctic, its scientific name means 'bear of the sea'.